

Forum for Research on Gender Economics (FROGEE)

Inequalities in Poland and the CEE Region: longitudinal and gender dimensions

FROGEE Workshop, Szczecin 13.01.2020

Technopark Pomerania, ul. Cyfrowa 2, Szczecin

10:15-10:30 Registration and coffee

10:30-10:50 What is FROGEE: welcome and introduction – Michał Myck (CenEA)

10:50-11:20 Leszek Morawski (University of Warsaw and CenEA): Changes in tax and benefit policies in the years 2005-2017 and monetary poverty in Poland: microsimulation approach (with Michał Myck and Mateusz Najstüb)

11:20-11:50 Marta Hozer-Koćmiel (University of Szczecin): Unpaid household work in Poland. Quantitative approach

11:50-12:30 PhD forum:

11:50-12:10 Joanna Rachuba (University of Szczecin): Management and supervisory boards in Central European banks – Does gender matter?

12:10-12:30 Monika Różycka (University of Szczecin): New management trends - an empirical approach to the catalog of women's talents in contemporary business

12:30-13:15 Lunch

13:15-13:45 Monika Oczkowska (CenEA): Gender preferences in Central and Eastern Europe (with Michał Myck and Izabela Wowczko)

13:45-14:15 Michał Brzeziński (University of Warsaw): Reevaluating distributional consequences of the transition to market economy in Poland: new results from combined household survey and tax return data (with Michał Myck and Mateusz Najstüb)

14:15-14:45 Discussion and coffee