The (Ce)² workshop is a joint initiative of the Centre for Economic Analysis (CenEA, Poland) and the Centre for Microdata Methods and Practice (CeMMAP, UK). The seventh edition of the workshop will take place in Warsaw on 27-28 June 2022.

In light of the Russian invasion of Ukraine and its consequences we issue a modified Call for Papers. The workshop will feature sessions on forced migration which will be organised in cooperation with migration experts from the University of Warsaw. We extend the list of fields from which we welcome studies to the following:

- Human capital development
- Intergenerational mobility
- Poverty alleviation
- Discrimination and inequality
- Domestic violence
- Forced migration
- Internal displacement

Organization:

Only full papers will be considered (early versions are welcome). We expect the meeting to take place in person. In such a case participants will be required to present a COVID-pass as a precondition to participate in the meeting. Other precautionary measures may also be applied depending on the pandemic situation at the time of the workshop. The organizers reserve the right to move to an online format of the workshop.

Authors will have 50 minutes for their presentation and they will be expected to discuss another paper presented at the workshop. The total number of presentations will not exceed 20.

Procedures:

There is no conference fee, but participants are expected to cover their own travel and accommodation costs. Online submission is open via ce2@cenea.org.pl, with the deadline extended to 30 April 2022. Notifications are expected by 15 May 2022.

Once the main programme is finalised, a separate call will be announced for poster presentations.

WIEM 2022

Participants of the (Ce)² Workshop are also encouraged to take part in the XVII Warsaw International Economic Meeting (WIEM) on 28-30 June 2022, as presenters or audience members. The Hurwicz keynote lectures, held on the afternoon of June 28, will also serve as the opening event for WIEM.
